Going to Miss the Tax Deadline? Here's What to Do

FILE AN EXTENSION . . .

TO AVOID BEING LIABLE FOR PENALTIES AND INTEREST . . .

you should file an extension with the IRS, State of Michigan, and/or City and pay the estimated tax due before the due date.

IRS — Due Date April 18

If you can't file by the due date, file IRS Extension Form 4868 available at www.irs.gov.

State of Michigan — Due Date April 18

If you can't file by the due date, file copy of IRS Form 4868 or file Michigan Extension Form 4 available at www.michigan.gov/iit.

City of Detroit — Due Date April 18

Other Cities — Due April 30

If you can't file by the due date, contact your local city tax office for an extension form.
